Safer Better Care

About the Health Information and Quality Authority

The Health Information and Quality Authority (HIQA) is an independent authority established to drive high-quality and safe care for people using our health and social care services in Ireland. HIQA's role is to develop standards, inspect and review health and social care services and support informed decisions on how services are delivered.

HIQA aims to safeguard people and improve the safety and quality of health and social care services across its full range of functions.

HIQA's mandate to date extends across a specified range of public, private and voluntary sector services. Reporting to the Minister for Health and the Minister for Children and Youth Affairs, HIQA has statutory responsibility for:

- Setting Standards for Health and Social Services — Developing person-centred standards, based on evidence and best international practice, for health and social care services in Ireland.
- Regulation — Registering and inspecting designated centres.
- Monitoring Children's Services — Monitoring and inspecting children's social services.
- Monitoring Healthcare Safety and Quality — Monitoring the safety and quality of health services and investigating as necessary serious concerns about the health and welfare of people who use these services.
- Health Technology Assessment — Providing advice that enables the best outcome for people who use our health service and the best use of resources by evaluating the clinical effectiveness and cost-effectiveness of drugs, equipment, diagnostic techniques and health promotion and protection activities.
- Health Information — Advising on the efficient and secure collection and sharing of health information, setting standards, evaluating information resources and publishing information about the delivery and performance of Ireland's health and social care services.

Prescribed information questions and answers

What is prescribed information?

Prescribed information refers to supporting documentation which is required to accompany an application to register or renew registration. You must submit prescribed information for the:

- applicant or registered provider,
- person in charge,
- each person participating in management, and
- the designated centre (disability only)

Why must I submit prescribed information?

This is a legal requirement set out in:

- Regulation 4(2) of the registration regulations for older people,
- Regulation 5(3) of the registration regulations for persons with disabilities

Is there any other time I should submit prescribed information?

Yes, where there is a change to the person in charge, or person participating in management of a designated centre, you must send us full and satisfactory information as outlined in:

- Regulation 6 of the registration regulations for older people \(DCOP\), and
- Regulation 7 of the registration regulations for persons with disabilities \(DCD\).

What if prescribed information is incomplete or missing?

Prescribed information is a legal requirement under section 48 of the Health Act 2007 therefore, your failure to comply with the legislation will be notified to your inspector, and may impact on the Chief Inspector's decision to grant or refuse your application to register or renew registration.

It is your responsibility as the applicant or the registered provider to ensure you send us complete and correct documentation as outlined in this guidance.

Recently submitted prescribed information

What does 'recently submitted' mean?

If you have recently submitted prescribed information to us and the documents are valid, you may not be required to send us the documentation again. The validity of the prescribed information will depend on:

- document type
- expiration date (if applicable)

Please read the relevant prescribed information section of this guidance to identify how long each document type is valid with us.

What if I don't have a copy of what I have recently submitted?

We recommend that you keep a copy of the registration application and notification documents that you submit to us; however, if you are unsure about the validity of your documentation please contact the registration office.

The following image is an example of how to complete the 'recently submitted' section.

Section 3.1 Prescribed information for the applicant (Company).
The following prescribed information must accompany your application form, unless recently submitted.	Enclosed	Recently submitted

2. Company self declaration form.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
3. Details of any previous experience by the company of carrying on the business of a designated centre (if applicable). n/a <input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
If you have ticked " recently submitted ", please provide the centre name, centre ID (OSV), and date the documentation was submitted. Documents must be valid . ^{††}
Certificate or incorporation submitted with application to register HIQA House – OSV-0009999 on 01 May 2016.

If you have recently submitted valid prescribed information, please tick the recently submitted checkbox.

Please state the centre's name, centre ID and date the prescribed information was submitted for each document recently submitted.

Prescribed information for the applicant or registered provider

You must send us the following prescribed information for the applicant or registered provider entity:

1. Proof of identity
2. Garda vetting report
3. Details of previous experience of carrying on the business of a designated centre in Ireland or elsewhere

The document type that we will accept is specific to the applicant or registered provider entity type. Please ensure you send us the correct documentation for your entity.

Proof of identity

Proof of identity	Entity Type
	Company	Partnership	Individual	Unincorporated body	Statutory body
Photographic Identification		✓	✓		✓
Certificate of Incorporation	✓
Proof of Existence				✓

A company

We will accept a copy of the company's certificate of incorporation. Do not send us the original certificate of incorporation.

How long will the certificate of incorporation stay valid with HIQA?

The certificate of incorporation does not expire. If you have sent us a copy of this documentation previously, you are not required to submit it again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox.

A partnership, individual, and statutory body

We will accept a copy of photographic identification for

- each partner in a partnership
- the individual or sole trader
- the person responsible on behalf of a statutory body

Photographic identification submitted must meet our requirements as outlined in the photographic identification section of this handbook. Do not send us the original document.

How long will photographic identification stay valid with HIQA?

Photographic identification is valid according to the date identified on the documentation.

- If you recently submitted photo identification to us and the document is in date, you are not required to submit this again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox.
- If the photo identification you have previously submitted is now expired or out of date, you must submit up-to-date photo identification.

An unincorporated body

We will accept one of the following documents as proof of identity of the unincorporated body:

- If you are a charity, a copy of your up-to-date registration from the Charities Regulatory Authority
- A recent bank statement showing the unincorporated body as the account holder
- Tax Clearance Certificate or other documentation from the Revenue Commissioners addressed to the unincorporated body
- Unincorporated body's charter or constitution

Please send us a photocopy only — do not send original proof of identity.

If you are unable to provide any of the above documentation, please contact the registration office as other documentation may be acceptable as proof of identity.

How long will proof of existence stay valid with HIQA?

Proof of identity for the unincorporated body does not expire. If you have sent us a copy of this documentation previously, you are not required to submit it again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox.

Garda vetting for the applicant or registered provider

The type of vetting documentation required is specific to the applicant or registered provider entity. Please read the guidance relevant to your entity type.

Company and Unincorporated Body

Company directors and members of an unincorporated body are not required to complete a National Vetting Bureau Invitation Form. The application to register or renew registration states that you should complete one of the following forms (enclosed with your registration pack) depending on your entity type:

- Company Self-declaration Form if the applicant and or registered provider entity is a company.
- Unincorporated Body Self-declaration Form if the applicant and or registered provider entity is an unincorporated body.

Should you choose to use our form, the form must be:

- dated currently (within six months of submitting your application to us),
- signed by the appropriate person:
 - company - an officer of the company
 - unincorporated body - a manager or chairperson or a member of the unincorporated body
- completed in full as per the following guidelines (per entity).

Company and unincorporated body self-declaration forms

Section 1. Company details or unincorporated body details

This section is unique to the entity type please read the relevant guidance that applies to you.

Company details — The company name, address and companies registration office number must match the Companies Registration Office register. You can check the registered name, address and registered number of the company by going to www.cro.ie.

Unincorporated body details — The unincorporated body name and address should be the same as the information provided in your application form.

Name of the person completing this form — Please state the first name and surname of the person who is completing the form on behalf of the body.

- In the case of a company, this person must be a director or another officer of the company such as company secretary, or chief executive officer.
- In the case of an unincorporated body the person must be a manager, a chairperson or a member of the unincorporated body.

Role of the person — Please tick the checkbox that reflects the role of the person. We will only accept forms signed by a person who carries out one of the roles identified on the form.

Section 2. Declaration

In signing this form, the person doing so is declaring that there are no convictions recorded against the company except for those listed in 'Schedule 1' of the declaration either within the Republic of Ireland or elsewhere. Please see declaration example illustrated below.

Name (print)	John Smith
Position	Director	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
	Authorised officer of the company	<input type="checkbox"/>
Signed	John Smith
Date	01 May 2016

Statutory body

A Garda vetting report for the person responsible on behalf of the statutory body is not required.

How long will vetting document stay valid with HIQA?

The vetting documentation you submit to us will not be requested again for three years. You will be required to submit up-to-date Garda vetting documentation when you are renewing the registration of a designated centre.

If you have recently submitted a Garda vetting documents to us (a self-declaration form or a HIQA National Vetting Bureau Invitation Form), the date of the form is within three years and there has been no change to the information previously supplied, you are not required to submit this form again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox on the prescribed information checklist.

However, if the three-year timeline has expired or / and there has been a change to the information previously supplied you should submit up-to-date vetting documentation.

Details of any previous experience

You must submit details of previous experience for the entity (individual, partnership, company, unincorporated body, and statutory body) that is carrying on the business of the designated centre within Ireland or a similar residential service outside of Ireland.

We will accept:

1. A list of designated centres operated by the entity in Ireland or a similar residential service outside of Ireland, or
2. A tick in the N/A checkbox if the entity does not have previous experience of carrying on the business of a designated centre in Ireland or elsewhere.

How long will details of previous experience stay valid with HIQA?

Details of previous experience do not expire. If there has been no change to the information previously submitted you are not required to submit this documentation again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox on the prescribed information checklist.

If there is a change to the information previously submitted, you will be required to submit up-to-date details of previous experience for the entity.

Prescribed information for the person in charge and person participating in management

Prescribed information for a person in charge or person participating in management must be submitted with an:

- application to register
- application to renew registration:
 - if the person has not previously submitted this form, or
 - if there has been a change to the information previously supplied on the personal information form
- NF30 Notification Form — new person in charge
- NF31 Notification Form — new person participating in management

What prescribed information should I submit for the person in charge and each person participating in management?

Prescribed information required for the person will vary depending on the service provided at your designated centre. It is your responsibility to ensure you send us the correct documentation. Please use the following table as guidance.

Prescribed information - person in charge and each person participating in management	Service type
	Disability	Older persons
Personal Information Form	✓	✓

Prescribed information - person in charge and each person participating in management	Service type
	Disability	Older persons
Medical Declaration Form	✓	Not Required

Personal Information Form

The personal information form should be completed in respect of the person in charge and each person participating in management at the designated centre.

How long will the personal information form stay valid with HIQA?

The information you send us in this form is specific to the designated centre where the person works and is valid unless there has been a change to:

- any information previously supplied in the form, such as work history or qualifications, or
- a change of designated centre where the person works — in this case you should submit a new form with updated information.

If you have previously submitted a personal information form, and there has been no change to the information previously supplied and the role of this person has not changed at the designated centre, you are not required to submit the forms again. In this case, you should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox.

How do I complete the personal information form?

We will accept forms completed by the registered provider that are:

- dated currently (within three months of submitting your registration pack),
- original with an original signature — do not send us a photocopy, and
- completed as per the following guidelines.

Section 1. Designated centre details

In this section you should tell us the name and associated centre ID (OSV) of the designated centre. If the subject of this form has the same role in more than one designated centre please include the name of each designated centre and the associated centre ID (OSV) in this section or attach a list of each designated centre and the associated centre ID (OSV).

Section 2. Contact details for the person

Please tick the checkbox that relates to the role of the person. If the name is different to what is on the person's birth certificate or photographic identification, please note this on the form. The person's name and business phone number provided in this section will be included on our register of designated centres and your certificate of registration.

Section 3. Registration with a professional regulatory body

Professional body — please state the name of the professional body that the person is registered with. Professional regulatory bodies relevant to this form may include:

- Bord Altranais agus Cnáimhseachais na hÉireann, Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland (NMBI), www.nmbi.ie
- CORU, Health and Social Care Professionals Council, www.coru.ie
- Medical Council (Republic of Ireland), www.medicalcouncil.ie.

Registration numbers — Please state the registration number associated with the person's registration.

Registration status — Please state the status of your registration with the professional body, that is to say either active or inactive.

Section 4. Qualifications

Please list the relevant qualifications or accredited training for the person. 'Relevant' refers to any qualification that is related to the role of being the person in charge or person participating in management. You should include the following information as it appears on the award:

- name of the qualification
- name of the awarding body
- date of the award

You are required to submit a photocopy of each document listed in this section (do not send originals).

Section 5. Employment history

This section should reflect the person's employment history including each period of employment (including employment outside of Ireland) study, and any gaps in employment. Please start with the person's current role and state:

- Start and end date for each period, do not leave any gaps.
- Name and address of every place the person has worked or studied.
- Job title and position details for each role, including employment type such as full-time, part-time or voluntary. If there is a gap, please state the reason for the gap in this section such as, career break or maternity leave.
- Reason for leaving should reflect the reason why the period of employment, study or gap in employment ended.

Section 6. Verification of previous employment

Has this person ever worked with vulnerable adults or children in a previous role? —

When completing this section, please tick one of the following options:

- 'Yes'— If the person's employment history identifies that they have worked directly with children or vulnerable adults. If yes, you must complete 'Subsection 6.1'.
- 'No' — If the person's employment history does not identify that they have worked directly with children or vulnerable adults. If no, go to 'Section 7' next.

Work with vulnerable adults includes older people, people with an intellectual disability, and people with:

- dementia
- a mental illness
- an acquired brain injury
- an inability to communicate decisions

For the purpose of this form, a person in an acute hospital setting is not necessarily a vulnerable person, this means if the person's previous employment was a nurse in a hospital setting, they do not have to tick 'Yes' in respect of this employment.

Subsection 6.1

This section should be completed if the person has worked with vulnerable adults or children in a previous role. You should state if you have 'verified the reason why the employment or position(s) has ended for each period of employment' by ticking either the 'Yes' or 'No' checkbox.

- If you have ticked the 'No' checkbox, please provide your rationale for not verifying why the position or employment ended in the text box provided. This may include when it is not reasonably practical to obtain verification, such as the previous employer is no longer operational.

- If you have ticked the 'Yes' checkbox, you should state if you are 'satisfied with the reasons given for why the employment or position has ended' by ticking either the 'Yes' or 'No' checkbox in this section — If you have ticked 'No' and you are not satisfied with the reasons given; please state your rationale in the text box provided.

Section 7. Declaration by the registered provider

The declaration should be signed by the applicant, registered provider, or by a person authorized by the registered provider. Please use the following table as guidance.

Entity Type	We will accept a declaration signed by:
Individual	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Individual – the person applying to register, or▪ Authorized person, authorized to act on behalf of the individual.
Partnership	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Authorized partner of the partnership (only).

Statutory body	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Person responsible on behalf of the statutory body▪ Authorized person, authorized to act on behalf of the person responsible on behalf of the statutory body.

Who is an authorized person?

In the context of the application form the 'authorized person' means a person in the organization who has been authorized by the registered provider entity individual, company, unincorporated body or statutory body to sign the declaration section on their behalf. It is important to note that by ticking the authorized person checkbox, the person is making a declaration to the Chief Inspector to the effect that:

- the information provided in the form is true to the best of their knowledge and belief
- he or she has the full authorization of the applicant or registered provider to sign the declaration on their behalf.

- ## How long will this document stay valid?

- If the document previously submitted to us is in date, you should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox on the prescribed information checklist.

* EU Member states along with Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein.

If the document has expired or changed (including address), you should submit up-to-date photographic identification.

Photocopy of a Garda vetting report for the person in charge and person participating in management

You are required to send us a photocopy of the Garda vetting report (disclosure) obtained by the applicant or registered provider for the person in charge and person participating in management when:

- you are completing an application to register,
- every three years thereafter with an application to renew, or
- as part of an NF30 or NF31 notification form.

We will accept a photocopy of a National Vetting Bureau report (disclosure), this must be clear and the person's name and information provided are clearly identifiable. The date on the report must be dated currently, that is within six months of submission to us.

How long will the vetting documentation stay valid with HIQA?

A photocopy of vetting documentation will not be requested again for three years. You will be required to submit up-to-date Garda vetting documentation for the person in charge and person participating in management when you are renewing the registration of the designated centre.

If the person has moved to a new designated centre with a different registered provider the applicant or registered provider will be required to submit a copy of a current Garda Vetting report for the person enclosed with the relevant registration or notification pack.

What if I have recently submitted this documentation?

You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox on the prescribed information checklist if the vetting report (disclosure) recently submitted is:

- dated within the last two years
- there has been no change to the information previously supplied
- the person has not moved to a new designated centre (with a new registered provider).

If the vetting report (disclosure) is not dated within the last two years or there has been a change to the information previously supplied, you should submit an up-to-date photocopy of a National Garda Vetting Bureau report (disclosure) for the person.

Birth certificate (Disability)

Applicants and or registered providers for designated centres for persons with disabilities are required to submit a copy of a birth certificate for the person in charge and each person participating in management. This is a legal requirement set out schedule 3 of the registration regulations for designated centres for persons with disabilities.

What should I submit?

We will accept a photocopy of the person's birth certificate.

- The photocopy should be clear and the person's name and date of birth should be identifiable.
- Do not send us the original birth certificate.

How long will the birth certificate stay valid with HIQA?

The birth certificate does not expire. If you have previously sent us the person's birth certificate you are not required to submit a copy of the birth certificate again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox on the prescribed information checklist.

Copy of qualifications

What should I submit?

You are required to submit documentary evidence of any relevant qualifications or accredited training in respect of the person in charge and each person participating in management.

We will accept a photocopy of qualifications or accredited training that has been identified for the person in Section 4. "Qualifications" of the personal information form. Do not send us the original document. Please ensure the photocopy is legible and states:

- the person's name
- qualification or training awarded, and
- date of the award

What if I cannot obtain documentary evidence?

If you are unable to provide a photocopy of the qualification or accredited training, you should submit a declaration stating the reasons why you cannot obtain the documentary evidence. HIQA inspectors will review the information on receipt and may contact you directly if further clarification is required.

Reference Form (Disability)

Applicants or registered providers for designated centres for persons with disabilities are required to submit two HIQA Reference Forms for the person in charge and for each person participating in management at the designated centre.

Who should complete the HIQA Reference Forms?

One HIQA reference form must be completed in respect of the person's last employment. We will accept forms completed by:

- the person's previous employer (last employment), or
- a previous line manager (last employment).

If you are unable to obtain a reference from the person's last employer or line manager, we will accept a declaration stating the reason why you cannot obtain a previous employer or line manager reference, in addition to a HIQA reference form completed by one of the following:

- the person's current line manager, or
- the person's previous line manager in their current employment.

A second HIQA reference form should be completed by a referee in a professional capacity that previously or currently works with the person such as a medical professional. This person should be able to attest to the suitability of the person in their role of person in charge or person participating in management.

Is there any type of reference not accepted?

We will not accept reference forms completed by a friend, relative, resident, or relative of a resident; or references that are not completed in a format specified by the Chief Inspector, that is to say, on a HIQA Reference Form.

How long will the reference form stay valid with HIQA?

A reference form does not expire. If you have previously completed two HIQA reference forms and the person's role in the designated centre has not changed, you are not required to submit the forms again. You should tick the 'recently submitted' checkbox in the prescribed information checklist.

What should I submit if the person's role has changed from a person participating in management to a person in charge?

If the person's role in the designated centre has changed from the role of person participating in management to a person in charge, you are required to submit one additional reference form from the person's previous employer or line manager (last employment) attesting to their suitability in the role of person in charge of a designated centre.

What if the person has submitted reference forms with another organization?

If the person is new to the organization, but has previously submitted HIQA reference forms with another organization, you should submit one additional HIQA reference form from the person's previous employer or line manager (last employment).

Who should submit the reference form to the registration office?

It is the responsibility of the applicant and or registered provider to ensure that two HIQA reference forms are sent to the Registration Office as part of your registration pack, NF30 or NF31 Notification form.

The referee should return the form directly to the Registration Office; however, if the referee chooses to return the form to the applicant or registered provider, the forms should be enclosed with the relevant registration pack or notification.

How do I complete the HIQA Reference Form?

We will accept a complete reference form with original signatures and dated currently, within three months of submitting your registration pack. Please ensure the form has been completed correctly by following the guidelines.

Section 1. Designated centre details

This section of the form should be completed by the applicant and or registered provider.
