Hearing the views and opinions of children and young people on the support and care that they receive is at the centre of our work in HIQA.

That's why we have launched the 'HIQA Children's and Young People's Poster Competition'.

We are asking children and young people both living in and supported by the services we inspect and monitor to design a poster based on the theme 'Hear My Voice'.

We are asking children and young people both living in and supported by the services we inspect and monitor to design a poster based on the theme 'Hear My Voice'.

The overall winning design will receive a €100 voucher and runners up prizes will also be awarded. The designs will be used on our new poster for inspections, official HIQA postcards and for the cover of a forthcoming publication.

All entries will also be part of an exhibit which will be available to view following the competition.

The closing date to enter the competition is 5pm on 7 August 2024.

POSTER COMPETITION

Children and young people's entries can either be sent back along with their signed entry forms by email to children@hiqa.ie by the closing date or posted to the HIQA Dublin Office at: Children's Team, HIQA, Georges Court, Georges Lane, Smithfield, Dublin 7 DO7 E98Y.

There are a number of criteria that entries must meet:

- The competition is open to all children and young people under 18 years supported by the services we inspect and monitor; foster care, children's residential care, Oberstown, special care units and child protection and welfare services.

- Only artwork that is 2D can be entered in this competition; however you are free to use any medium they wish.

- All entries must be accompanied by the attached entry form and the consent section must be signed by the child or young person's parent/ legal guardian. This consent section is very important as it gives HIQA the consent of both the child or young person and their legal guardian to use the artwork.

- Competition entries sent by email should be photographed or scanned and sent along with a PDF of the signed entry form to children@hiqa.ie. The subject line of the email should say 'Poster Competition 2024'.

- Please note HIQA will not be able to accept any entries without an accompanying, completed consent form and will be unable to return any artwork submitted by post.

- Any follow-up communication with winners of the competition by HIQA will be directly with the child or young person's parent/legal guardian.
